TABITI STILL TROUBLED.

Predlication of Natives For British Rule Worrying the French.

"By the Taupo, which arrived from the Islands on Monday," says the New Zealand Herald of June 12, "news was received that the trouble between the French authorities and the natives of Raiatea was still continuing. Recently the islanders erected a flagstaff and hoisted the British flag, stating that they still adhered to their resolve not to come under a French protectorate. A French man-of-war took the British consul from Papeete to Raiatea, to counsel and advise the natives that they could not fly the British flag, nor could they receive any protection from the British. The natives, however, continued firm, saying that they looked upon Queen Victoria as their 'mother.' The end of the matter was that the flagstaff was shot down by the guns of the warship; but the natives, nothing daunted, soon had another flagstaff erected, and when the Taupo left the island there were three staffs from which the British flag was displayed. The French authorities are now pursuing a strict surveillance of the island, and are endeavoring to subjugate the natives by a starvation process."

This hoisting of the British flag and having it shot down has been a frequent performance for a year past, as readers of the BULLETIN will recollect from the number of times such incidents have been reported.

STATESMAN IN TROUBLE.

The Treasurer of New Zealand Deeply Involved in Debt.

By the steamer Mariposa's mail comes news of a sensation in New Zealand political and financial circles. In connection with the liquidation of the Colonial Bank it has been discovered that the total indebtedness to the institution of J. G. Ward, Colonial Treasurer, and the J. G. Ward Farmers' Association was $840, 000, and there was a proposition before the court to sell the whole amount for $335,000. Commenting on the affair the financial editor of the Auckland Herald says: "The private financial difficulties of the Colonial Treasurer are much to be deplored, and the revelations of losses incurred have been freely and painfully discussed; but as the matter is still sub-judice, it would be improper and a little ungracious to refer to them fully. We are doubtless on the eve of an important ministerial change, and all we can hope for is that our financial guide of the future will No. 117 Bethel st., between King and Hote steer the ship of state carefully and not wreck one of the finest countries under the sun, on the rocks of dangerous financial experiments."

Honolulu's warm climate is conducive of thirst to a greater degree than that of a colder zone. The average business man loses also, to a degree, the amount of energy and nervous force common enough in the bracing air of American cities. These two phases of our climate make it more necessary than elsewhere to stimulate the system with an invigorant. No more healthful or purer stimulus, or one more delightful to the palate, can be found, than Pabst Milwaukee beer. It is a delicious drink and is constantly on draught at the Cosmopolitan, Pacific and the Royal.

Good Advice Quickly Followed

Cured of Rheumatism by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.: "I was taken down with rheumatism over a year ago. I was sick for over six months. Often I would have such pains that I could hardly endure them. A friend came to me and advised me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. I took him at his word and got a bettle of it, and since have taken eight bottles of it.

It Has Cured Me When the doctors could do me no good whatever. After being benefited so much from this medicine I describe Hood's Sarsaparilla as a wonderful medicine. I also advise every one who is troubled with rheumatism not to be with-
